Free advice on reducing your energy bills

PEOPLE will get help with cutting hundreds of pounds from their energy bills with the aid of Southend's citizens advice bureau (CAB).

As the rising cost of living continues to put pressure on household budgets, CAB is offering free advice on what people are entitled to.

It is running through the national campaign the Big Energy Saving Week.

Advice on offer will include the best deals for energy suppliers, how to switch tariffs and how to insulate your home to reduce energy usage.

By taking action to check, switch and insulate home owners could save £325 from insulating their house.

An average of £100 could also be saved by changing payment for bills by direct debit.

A total of £200 could also be saved by switching energy suppliers.

Trish Carpenter, Bureau Manager of Southend CAB, said during Big Energy Saving Week we will be helping energy costs down.

She said: "The rising cost of living means that more and more people are finding that their household budgets won't cover day to day essentials."

"We're keen to make sure that no-one pays a penny more than they need to on energy costs. There are practical things that people can do to reduce their energy bills and help ease financial pressure."

A stall will be set up in the Asda store, at Shoeburyness, between 11am and 2pm.

Consumers can also get help and advice online at www.bigenergysavingweek.org.uk.

MOTHER'S DELIVERY ORDEAL

Hospital pays out after death of premature baby

By Paul Giles

southend@yellowad.co.uk

A MOTHER has won damages from Southend Hospital after it failed to save her premature son.

Tracey Godwin, 34, from Southend, gave birth to Tom at 22 weeks and two days in 2010. He died in her arms 46 minutes later.

Ms Godwin had called for medics to do everything possible to keep Tom alive but no staff qualified to make that decision were present.

The hospital has a policy of only incubating new born babies after 23 weeks, in line with national guidelines.

The hospital's own policy states a paediatrician can use discretion to save a 22-week-old baby.

Tracy went into labour at Southend Hospital on Thursday March 4 2010. Her waters were broken by the midwives with a pair of scissors on the Saturday. Tom was born weighing just 1lb.

Ms Godwin began to ask why there was no incubator in the room, but no hospital consultant or paediatrician was there to assist the two WIN! TICKETS TO...

The UK's No.1 show for outdoor pursuits, The Telegraph Outdoor and Adventure Travel Show – Driven by SEAT, (formerly The Outdoors Show and The Active Travel Show) is back at London's ExCeL Centre with a brand new look and feel and we're offering five readers the chance to win a pair of tickets to the show.

Promising a great family day out, the show provides a fantastic opportunity to buy all the latest clothing and equipment at great prices, find out about the best adventure holidays as well as offering FREE have-a-go attractions, special guest speakers and more.

There are number of great speakers currently confirmed including double Olympic gold medalist and adventurer James Cracknell on the Telegraph Travel Stage and Sean Conway, who became the first person to swim the length of Britain from Land's End to John O'Groats via Ireland will be talking on The Climb and Adventure Stage. They'll be joined by a host of other mountaineers, adventurers and travellers, all with fantastic stories to tell. All talks will be free of charge to visitors upon entry to the show.

For those looking to flex their adventurous streak, head to the Climb and Adventure Zone with plenty of FREE have-a-go attractions including the multi-faceted Climbing Village which has walls suitable for all ages and abilities and the World's Longest Indoor Twin Zip wire from Go Ape. New for 2014, the Free Drop Experience allows visitors to feel the thrill of jumping from a 5m tall platform into a huge airbag.

The Telegraph Outdoor Adventure and Travel Show will once again run alongside The London Bike Show and a new show, the Triathlon Plus Show. A ticket for one show allows visitors access into all three shows where there will be lots more to see and do, creating an entertaining, affordable day out for all visitors.

If all this isn't enough, the perfect way to top off a day at the show is with some great food and drink at The National Geographic Traveller Café or sample local produce at the Small Producers' Market.

For more information visit: www.telegraph

New jobs boost for paramedics

- 'Front-line vacancies' open up in busy Essex ambulance area
- Recruits will get full-time wage on two-year training course

HUNDREDS of jobs have been announced in Essex by the East of England Ambulance Service.

The service aims to recruit 400 student paramedics to fill 'frontline vacancies' across the region – with Essex being the busiest county. The paramedic training programme takes two-and-a-half years to complete, during which students receive a full-time wage.

New chief executive Dr Anthony Marsh announced the recruitment drive as part of his 'pledge' to tackle criticism and inspections that showed the service was failing patients. "This programme will secure new employees for the service who will learn on the job and in the classroom."

"It is a great opportunity for anyone who has thought of becoming a paramedic; helping people in the community, sometimes in their greatest hour of need."

Dr Marsh said all successful participants will be offered full-time contracts.

"While this may be an ambitious target, it means we will have a whole lot of fully qualified paramedics on the road responding to our patients in the future."

He added: "This is a really exciting opportunity for people who want to work with us and who want to care for patients almost straight away."

"We will be giving students vital hands-on experience throughout the course, and offer of a job at the end of it."

As well as recruiting new students, the service is continuing to recruit graduate paramedics plus qualified technicians and paramedics. If you are interested in becoming a student paramedic, get further information and register at www.jobs.nhs.uk. You can also follow @EEAST_Jobs on Twitter for updates.

Traffic affected by gas works

GAS main replacement works by National Grid Gas in Manners Way, will lead to traffic restrictions.

Work started on Monday, January 27.

Restrictions will include no stopping, waiting and unloading in the road.

No turning into Hampton Gardens, Oaken Grange Drive, Sherbourne Gardens, Alton Gardens and Thomford Gardens.

Work is expected to go on until Tuesday, April 1.

Consultation on recycling scheme

A CONSULTATION on a new recycling scheme and waste collection contract has been launched by Southend council.

The services contract aims to deliver value for money and savings, whilst supporting the council's overall aims. It is likely to be a ten-year contract. The consultation will run until Monday, March 10. All Southend residents are invited to provide their views by accessing the following link to an on-line feedback form – www.southend.gov.uk/wasteconsultation.

Living with dementia

ADVICE sessions about living with dementia will take place in Southend until March.

Sessions will focus on what can cause memory problems, myths about dementia, where to get help and information for dementia.

Dates include Thursday, January 30, between 2.30pm and 4.30pm and Saturday, February 1, between 10am and 12pm at the Friars, The Renown, Shoeburyness.

Warning as bogus cops cheat OAPs

THREE elderly people have been defrauded of more than £12,000 by thieves posing as police officers.

They are the latest victims in a scam that since January 1 has seen 21 attempts to steal from elderly people across Essex.

On January 15 a man in his 80s in Canvey lost £5,000, on January 21 a man in his 90s at Leigh was tricked out of £5,000 and on January 23, a woman in her 70s from Westcliff was the victim of a £2,000 fraud.

All the victims received calls from men claiming to be Met Police who said they were investigating bank account fraud. They asked their victims to provide vide bank cards or cash to be used for forensic examination.

The cards and cash were collected by couriers using cabs from local taxi firms.

DS Neil Hudson said: "Elderly people are still being tricked by these despicable thieves so it is important that everyone is always on guard."

Tricksters call their targets several times in an attempt to convince them. Another ploy is to ask people to call back or to call their bank to verify claims that their accounts have been infiltrated. But the common stay on the line so when the victim starts a fresh call to what they believe is a police station or a bank, it is the very same tricksters they are talking to.

The police's Operation Seaford team has made a number of arrests. Anyone with information should contact the team at Grays on 101 or call Crimestoppers on 0800 555111.

Phone scam advice...

- Police will never ask for your PIN
- If you think you have been a victim, call police FROM A DIFFERENT NUMBER
- If you don't have another phone, use a neighbour's, or wait five minutes before dialling 101 or 999 (if urgent)

Wilko fans' anger over ticket touting 'disgrace'

By Charles Thomson

basildon@yellowad.co.uk

MUSIC lovers posted angry messages on rocker Wilko Johnson's Facebook page last week after tickets to his latest gig sold out in minutes and were listed on re-sale websites at massively inflated prices.

On February 25, the Dr Feelgood guitarist will perform a one-off concert at the Shepherd's Bush Empire with The Who's Roger Daltrey, to celebrate the release of their joint album Going Back Home.

Wilko exclusively announced the album in a YA interview last September and confirmed its release date last Wednesday, with gig tickets going on-sale last Friday.

However, within 50 minutes of tickets – top price £45 – going on-sale, a pair were listed on re-sale website Viagogo for £1,000 each.

Viagogo is designed for fans who can no longer use their tickets to re-sell them to other fans.

By Monday morning three tickets were listed on Viagogo for £1,200 each, plus a £540 booking fee, £108 VAT and £9.95 postage – totalling £4,257.95 for the three £45 tickets.

On Monday morning almost 60 tickets were being sold on Viagogo at more than £100 each, 13 of which cost at least £500 per ticket.

At similar sites Seatwave and Stub Hub on Monday morning, tickets were being sold in groups of up to four for up to £299.95 each.

Long-time fans flocked to Wilko's Facebook fan page on Friday to complain that 'ticket touts' had been offering tickets on re-sale websites before they had even gone on-sale at 9am.

Steve Coulson wrote at 9.04am: "Sold out!!! Really, at one minute past nine, and yet five minutes ago they were already on ticket re-sale sites. Was looking forward to this. Really not impressed."

Colston Crawford posted at 9.11am: "This is one of the great scandals of the entertainment industry. Touting made legal. It really needs to be regulated."

Steven Sedgwick posted 20 minutes later: "Scandal – on the site at 8.59am, can't get tix, but by 9.05am I could buy as many as I wanted on Stub Hub at the bargain of £113 each plus booking fees. I have followed Wilko through thick and thin for 30 years (even down to pub gigs in London of 20 people) and am very disappointed on this. It is legalised touting."

Matt Marlow said people re-selling tickets minutes after buying them were a 'disgrace' and Phil Carroll called the practice 'disgusting', while long-time fan James Olver complained he had only managed to get tickets in the third tier, writing: "Why are they not made available to real fans first? The fact that I've been seeing Wilko play for over 35 years counts for nothing."

Graeme St Clair wrote: "Gutted and feel betrayed."

Nick Sendall asked: "Does anyone know a Wilko Johnson fan that actually got a ticket?"

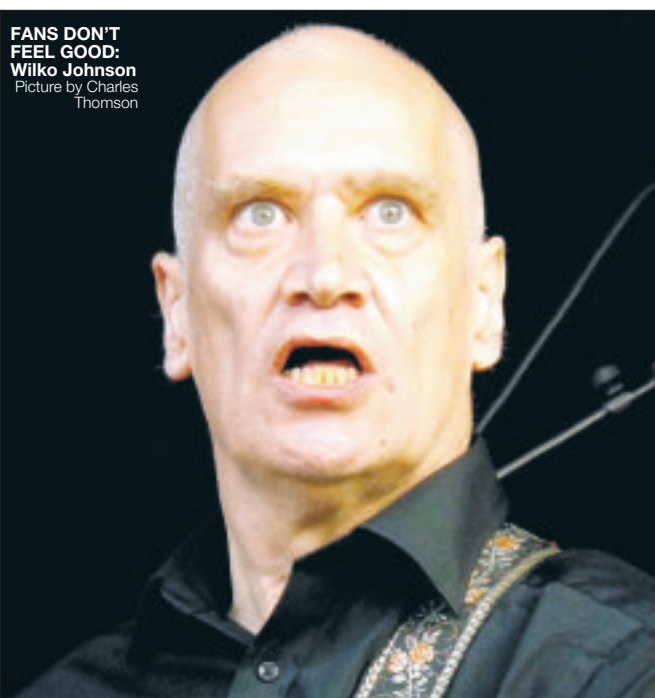

Concert promoter AEG Live warned against buying from ticket touts.

A spokesman said: "We strongly recommend that you only purchase your tickets through our official, authorised ticket agencies (a list of which is on our website at www.aeglive.co.uk).

"We cannot take responsibility for the validity of tickets purchased from unauthorised agents or other sources (including ticket touts) and any tickets purchased in breach of our ticketing terms and conditions may be rendered null and void."

The YA will report from the gig next month for fans who were unable to attend.

Exhibition's all there in black and white

A PHOTOGRAPHER is holding a special exhibition of monochrome portraits at Cafe Utopia in Southend.

Peter Bolton will be holding the show until Friday, February 28.

The exhibition features 21 pieces ranging from portraits of local people to people dressed as war veterans.

Peter from Shoeburyness said the collection had built up over the years he has been a photographer.

He said: "I prefer printing my prints in monochrome and I know the owners of the cafe love monochrome too.

"It is a kind of wave to them really as they like them."

Peter will launch the exhibition on Wednesday, January 29, between 6pm and 8.30pm, at Cafe Utopia, unit 2, The Royals, Southend High Street.

Spotty knifeman robber had 'bushy eyebrows'

POLICE are hunting for a robber with bushy eyebrows after a man was threatened with a knife. The victim, a 20-year-old man from Southend, was walking along Milton Road, into Westcliff Parade, towards the Cliffs Pavilion, at about 1.30pm last Wednesday (January 22), when he was approached by the man carrying a knife. The robber demanded the victim's phone but he refused. He instead gave the robber

£10 and ran off to get help. The knifeman is described as white, of slim build, and aged in his late teens to early twenties, and about 5ft 8in tall. He had dark brown or black thick bushy eyebrows and grey eyes. He was clean shaven with a spotty complexion, and wore a dark blue New York Yankees baseball cap, a dark blue balaclava with a pattern of little crossed guns on it. Call 101 with information.

Mother's ordeal

● From front page midwives, or to take a decision on whether to save Tom.

Ms Godwin said she still had many unanswered questions concerning her treatment and the death of her baby. "It has caused me to become severely depressed and unable to work. Hospitals should make every effort to ensure a patient's survival, but instead I was left without a paediatrician, desperate and helpless to alleviate the suffering of my baby boy."

Southend Hospital refused to disclose the sum it had paid to Ms Goodwin, but it is believed to be a five-figure sum.

Chief nurse Sue Hardy offered Ms Godwin condolences on the loss of her baby and apologised for the 'lack of communication'. She said: "We are again sorry that her experience of care did not meet the high standard we strive to provide. It is essential that we inform prospective parents of premature babies the expectations for their infant's survival between 20 and 24 weeks' gestation. In light of this we have strengthened our communication policy around this deeply sensitive issue."

Ms Godwin has since given birth to a daughter, Isla, who was born at 24 weeks. She is healthy and well.

'BREATHTAKING': Rebecca Harris MP cuts the ribbon on The Hub, the new student social space at Seevic College Hub, hub, hurray!

A COLLEGE has celebrated the opening of The Hub – a large new open-plan social space for students and focal point of a multi-million pound redevelopment project.

The development at Seevic College, Benfleet – which serves hundreds of Southend students – includes a new curved roof on the main building, the creation of 26 modernised classrooms and a new campus restaurant.

Special guest Rebecca Harris MP said: "I was delighted to be invited to this event and when I saw The Hub for the first time it really knocked me sideways – it's breathtaking."

"I've always been a supporter of Seevic and I want everyone in Benfleet to know about the superb opportunities here for local people." Student governor Liam Purnell, 17, added: "These new facilities are going to be hugely beneficial to students. There was already a warm and friendly environment in place, but it's now even more the case."

College principal and chief executive Nick Spenceley said: "It is my intention for Seevic College to become a real community resource."

Visitors can pre-book for the open evening on Tuesday (February 4), at www.seevic-college.ac.uk

It's the 'mudder' of all challenges

BRAVE nurses are planning to turn their discomfort into quite the opposite for the parents of sick children.

The paediatric staff from Southend Hospital are taking part in the hardcore 'Tough Mudder' challenge.

Taking place on Saturday, April 26, the tough 12-mile obstacle course designed by the British Special Forces includes ice pools, rope climbs, smoke tunnels and electric shocks.

The nurses are putting themselves through possibly the hardest ever assault course to raise funds to buy collapsible beds for parents of children on the hospital's Neptune ward.

With space at a premium on the high-dependency unit; these beds fold out from chairs and will allow parents to stay with their sick children 24/7 without compromising the day-to-day operations of the ward.

Sister Rebecca Simmonds, of Neptune ward, who suggested the challenge to her colleagues, said the equipment was much needed and make parents more comfortable.

She said: "We're training together lots at the moment, we're up to running five miles in the woods but it can be tricky after a long shift, especially when it's cold and raining outside."

"We're planning to give ourselves a treat day when we reach the 10-mile mark."

MILESTONE: Aer Lingus regional's chief commercial officer, Simon Fagan with Canan Dobson & London Southend Airport's head of airside operations, Nathan Deverall.

100,000th person takes to the Aer

AER LINGUS has celebrated its 100,000th passenger on the Southend to Dublin route.

The route, launched in May 2012, has grown considerably over the past 19 months, flying more than 100,000 passengers between London's newest hub and Dublin.

Canan Dobson, 27, from Epping was travelling on the 3.20pm Aer Lingus flight to Dublin on Thursday, January 23, to visit her 30-year old husband Oliver who is completing a management course in Dublin.

Mrs Dobson was greeted at check-in with a bottle of champagne and two return flights on the Southend to Dublin route.

She said: "This was a wonderful surprise.

"It's my first time travelling to Dublin and I'm really thrilled with this prize."

WANTED: Do you recognise him?

House entered and ransacked

INTRUDERS kicked open the front door of a house, ransacked rooms and took electrical items valued at a four-figure sum.

An e-fit has been released of a man police want to speak to in connection with the burglary in The Grove, Southend.

The break-in happened between 8.30am and 3.30pm, on Monday, January 13. Items stolen included a black Toshiba laptop, an iPad2, a 250G Xbox, a 4G Xbox, three console controllers and Turtle Beach headphones.

Any witnesses, anyone who saw or heard any suspicious activity in the area or has been offered any of these items in suspicious circumstances should contact Southend CID on 101 or call Crimestoppers on 0800 555111.

Thieves smash door to steal jewellery and Gucci watch

SUSPECT: Know him?

THIEVES smashed their way into a house to steal a haul of jewellery and a Gucci watch.

The property in Bournemouth Park Road, Southend, was hit sometime between 10am, on January 10, and 6.40pm on January 11.

Police want to hear from anyone who recognises an e-fit image of a man who is wanted for questioning in connection with the burglary.

Officers said the house had been searched of jewellery including necklaces, brooches, bangles, earrings and a lady's silver Gucci watch with navy square face have been stolen.

The suspect in the e-fit had been seen acting suspiciously in the street before the raid. He is described as white, aged 30 to 40, of slim build, and around 5ft 10in tall. He had short hair and was wearing a high-visibility jacket.

He may also have been in the company of another man and woman.

Anyone who believes they recognise the man in the e-fit is asked to call DC Kerry Auger at Southend CID on 101 or call Crimestoppers free and anonymously on 0800 555 111.

Men attacked

TWO MEN have been left with injuries after they were attacked outside Sainsbury's, in London Road, Southend, at about 1.30am on Saturday, January 18.

One of the victims, a 40-year-old man from Southend, suffered a fractured eye socket, broken fingers and a broken arm.

The second victim received a small cut to his face and a black eye.

They were assaulted by a group of four men.

One of them is described as either Asian or black, with his hair tied back with a dark jacket and possibly jeans.

The other three were white men but nothing else is known about their descriptions.

Police hunt knife man

DETECTIVES are hunting a man with bushy eyebrows after he threatened someone with a knife.

The victim, a 20-year-old man from Southend, was walking along Milton Road, into Westcliff Parade, towards the Cliffs Pavilion, at about 1.30pm on Wednesday, January 22, when he was approached by the man carrying a knife.

The knife man is described as a white man, of slim build, and aged in his late teens to early twenties, and about 5ft 7in to 5ft 8in tall.

He had dark brown or black thick bushy eyebrows and grey eyes.

He was clean shaven with a spotty complexion, and wore a dark blue New York Yankees baseball cap, a dark blue balaclava with a pattern of little crossed guns over it.

Race for Life

SOUTHEND women are being urged to join forces and show cancer who's boss by signing up to Race for Life 2014 which is now open for entries.

Every day, around 83 people are diagnosed with cancer in the East of England.

Cancer Research UK is calling on Southend women of all ages, shapes and sizes, to defy the disease by entering the Race for Life 5k event, at Garons Park, on Sunday, June 15.

To enter Race for Life today go to www.raceforlife.org or call 0845 600 6050.

Food hygiene

COUPLES are being encouraged to stay safe if they plan to dine out on Valentine's Day.

Food safety experts at Southend Council are urging diners to check the food hygiene star rating before booking their romantic meal.

The Food hygiene Rating Scheme (FHRS) rates the food hygiene standards of restaurants and takeaways in the borough.

Environmental health officers inspect these premises and mark them on a scale ranging from none, meaning urgent improvements are necessary, to a top rating of five which is billed as very good.

If you cannot see a sticker, then ask staff or check online at www.food.gov.uk/ratings

NHS meeting

NHS SOUTHEND Clinical Commissioning Group (CCG) will be holding its governing body meeting on Thursday, January 30 and members of the public are invited to attend.

Tea and coffee will be served from 1.15pm and the meeting will commence at 1.30pm with a 4pm finish.

The meeting will be held at Park View Suite, Chalkwell Park, London Road, Chalkwell.

The agenda and papers will be available one week prior to the meeting at www.southendccg.nhs.uk. For further information please contact Jean Robinson, governance and risk manager on 01702 314282.

Opinion and readers' letters

An affront to democracy

Parliament soon votes on a hastily drafted amendment to the care bill. This clause 118 has become known as the 'hospital closure clause'. No English hospital, including Southend's, will be safe from financially driven closures if clause 118 becomes law. It will not matter how successful or financially viable our local hospital is. It could be downgraded or shut altogether if there is a neighbouring hospital in trouble. We will not get a say. The decision to close will be taken by government appointed 'special administrators'; they will be more interested in balancing the books than in patient care. Local people, doctors and councillors will not be consulted in any meaningful way. It's an affront to democracy. Once upon a time the Cameron-led Conservatives used to claim they would protect hospitals - NHHes was their slogan. They also claimed no top-down reorganisation. The NHS was safe in their hands we were assured. The secretary of state for health, Jeremy Hunt, is keen to rush this clause through. It follows his defeat in the law courts over plans to shut services at the successful and solvent Lewisham hospital. The people of Lewisham won, but they won't win again if this change becomes law. It could be our local hospital next. There is still time to defeat Clause 118 - by putting pressure on local MPs we can force the government to scrap the hospital closure clause. We need to contact our MPs and ask that they oppose clause 118 when it is voted on in Parliament in February.

Toeing the party line more important?

During the Glebelands appeal in December 2012, I watched Cllr Govier give an opening statement to the planning inspector. She was tearful with emotion while telling tales to the inspector of how important this piece of green belt was to her ward, how much wildlife it supports and how building on it would be to the detriment of her ward. Since becoming a councillor for St Mary's ward, Cllr Sheldon has been loud and clear in fighting to stop any development of Jotmans Farm. His quotes and speeches have been almost Churchillian at times in rallying for support. On Wednesday January 15 I witnessed both of them raise their arms up to vote in favour of a new local plan consultation that includes 100 homes on Glebelands and 800 homes on Jotmans.

This week I see a photograph of Cllr Govier in your newspaper celebrating the high court decision to back CPBC in refusing planning to FLP, two days after she voted for building!

Maybe the strength in their conviction wasn't as strong as it first appeared, or maybe toeing the party line is more important than their ward constituents' views.

In an ideal world they will both make amends by using the high court decision on Glebelands to campaign to have the new local plan changed during its consultation to the benefit of their ward residents.

Bill will threaten free speech

Once again, at least one of our local MPs; Mr Francois, has ignored his constituents concerns and done his Conservative Party's bidding. He did so tacitly by his silence during the blood testing centralisation diktat and the Rayleigh Action Group's concerns over plans to release green belt west of the town for more housing and a Traveller site whilst his constituents in that area were baling out their homes during the summer flood due to inadequate drainage and his party colleagues at Rochford Council telling them to 'go buy your own sandbags'...

His latest action is far more explicit as he was one of those MPs who last week voted down the Lords' amendment to the 'Lobbying Bill'.

The original intent of the 'Lobbying Bill' was to curb the power of corporate lobbyists (e.g. the Private Health sector) and rich benefactors of political parties. It did not distinguish between its intended targets and those other much worthier lobby groups such as charities and apolitical lobbyists like '38 Degrees' who have been effective in opposing the bill to sell off our woodland and in curbing the Government's attempts to dismantle and privatise the NHS (e.g. blood testing).

Such organisations are funded by unselfish members of the public who otherwise have no power to influence Parliament other than at the ballot box every five years and unless in a marginal constituency, no influence whatsoever.

At first it seemed quite a beneficial oversight for the coalition to also have inflicted collateral damage on these public voices as an unintended consequence of the bill but its behaviour since then suggests something much more sinister when members of the major coalition party are prepared to vote down amendments in the higher house who are trying to protect our democracy, by stopping it becoming the 'Gagging Law'.

I really worry when a government starts to behave like a dictatorship by passing law to overturn decisions made in our high courts (i.e. hospital closures) and higher house (Gagging Law) and Mr. Francois, being a member of and supporting such a rotten government is culpable in its erosion of our democracy.

Apparently Mr. Francois has a military background and therefore used to 'just following orders' but if he had any conscience, he should lie stay awake at night thinking of his part in such a betrayal.

I appeal you as our local mouthpiece to expose this betrayal and urge Mr Francois to vote with his conscience and not with his party's not-so-hidden agenda to crush opposition at any cost to our democracy and free speech.

Perhaps your readers might consider that as comfortable as they may feel in a rock-solid Conservative constituency, there are some values which transcend party loyalties which are being abused by the major party of a coalition government. We should start to worry now in the run up to next year's general election how they'll behave if they win a clear majority.

We are going full circle

I CAN remember the lovely houses that were in Victoria Avenue that were pulled down to build the offices in Victoria Avenue.

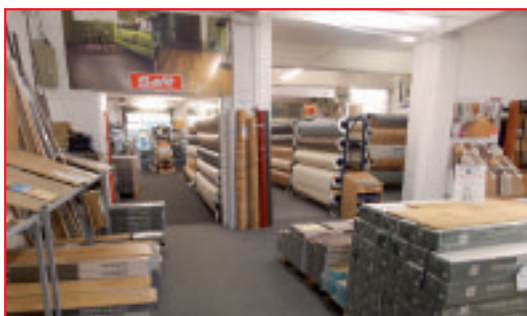

It would seem we are going full circle. Yes I agree they should be pulled down.

I have been saying for years what the council should have done, and still can, is pull all the old buildings down around the back of the High Street shops. This is where the offices should be put. It would put more life in the High Street. Workers going to and from work, and in their lunchtime would use the High Street shops.

The Window Man can help with all your glazing needs

WHEN problems occur with your double glazing and the guarantee is up or the suppliers are nowhere to be found, where do you go?

Fortunately, the Window Man of Basilidon has been providing the answers for more than 15 years.

Problems such as misted up sealed glazing units, broken friction stay hinges, sliding door wheel set failure and the squaring up of dropped doors are all in a day's work. As a service engineer and expert installer, with experience in the industry since the 1970s, the Window Man has a thorough knowledge of the industry. He has also had experience with almost every make and type of double glazing.

If you have a problem, you have absolutely nothing to lose by gaining his professional opinion, with no call-out charges and free estimates. If you are after new PVCU replacement windows and doors, it makes sense to shop around.

But to be extra sure, ask The Window Man to call before you make your final decision and he will be happy to offer sound advice as well as a fair, no-nonsense quote.

The Window Man is FENSA registered and you will get a certificate of Building Control Compliance with completed work.

For further information or a quote, call the Window Man on 01268 527112 (8am-8pm).

Convert your attic easily with Loftman

CONVERTING your loft for storage is one of the easiest conversions you can do, and one of the cheapest.

Loft conversions are great storage solutions for all of your unwanted and even wanted goods, or a great place to keep items out of sight for a few months or even years.

If you are planning a family you may need the extra storage room to put all of your baby clothes in, or you may want to put some of your current possessions up into the loft to clear some much needed space.

Using your loft space as storage is also a popular option if you have a commercial business downstairs and need more room to store some of your work belongings, giving your business the space to expand without the need to move.

Loftman's luxury storage rooms can include the strengthening of the loft joists, flooring, lighting, access, roof insulation, stud walls, Velux windows and ready to skim plasterboard throughout.

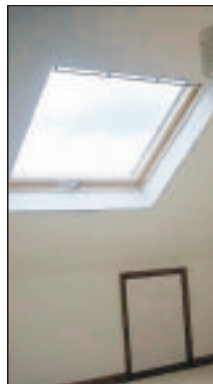

They can also install access doors into the eaves - offering valuable storage space on both sides of the room.

Depending on what you want to store in your loft will determine how much work needs to be done to create the extra loft space.

Luxury storage rooms are surprisingly affordable at just a fraction of the cost of a standard loft conversion. For example, a loft conversion on an average sized two-bedroom terrace house costs just £3,999, including supply and fitting.

To book a free, no-obligation survey, call Loftman now on 01268 840010 or 07973 672227.

Wilko, Roger and out for legends' album

CHARLES THOMSON looks at a special collaboration between The Who's Roger Daltrey and one of Canvey's finest, guitar legend Wilko Johnson

ESSEX rock legend Wilko Johnson has announced the release date for his impending album with The Who's Roger Daltrey – and the pair will play a special gig in London to celebrate its completion.

They will release the CD, titled Going Back Home, on the newly-revived Chess Records label on March 20.

Wilko, who shot to fame as the songwriter and guitarist for Canvey Island rock band Dr Feelgood, exclusively announced the pair's collaboration in a Yellow Advertiser interview last September.

The terminally-ill rocker, who has defied doctors' expectations after being told he would likely die by October 2013, said old plans for a collaboration were reignited when Wilko attended the GQ Awards a few days before the interview.

He said in September: "I'd encountered Roger a year or two ago and we decided to make an album together. That had all kind of got swept away but he was there the other night and we said, 'Come on, let's do this thing'. I like Roger and I think we could do something good together."

The pair recorded the album in a single week in November at the Yellow Fish studio in Uckfield, which Wilko described this week as 'an unfortunate name for a place, but a great studio'.

The 11-track album will feature 10 Wilko-penned tracks from previous Dr Feelgood and solo projects and a Bob Dylan cover.

Roger Daltrey has pledged to donate all of his royalties from the album to a cancer charity.

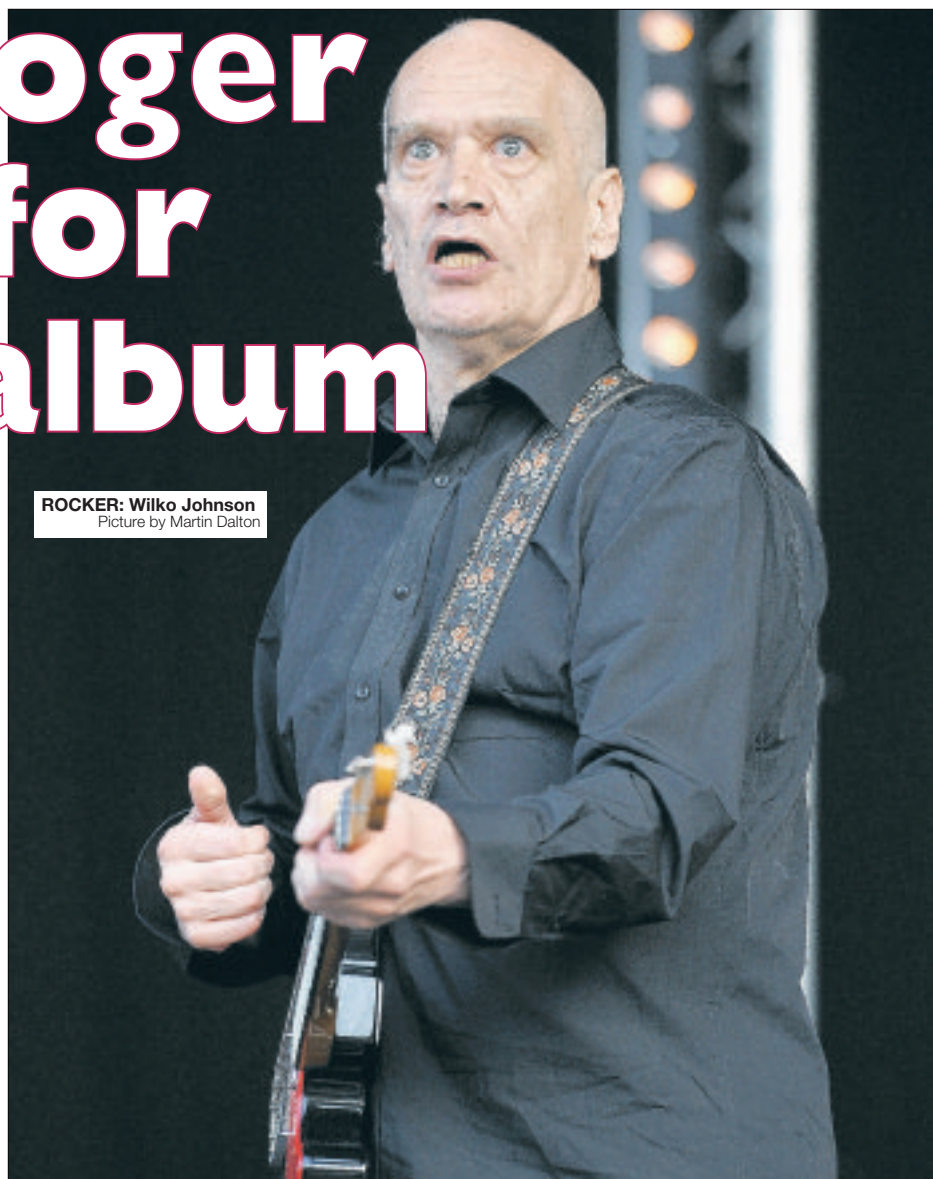

Mr Daltrey said: "I am very proud of this album. So much music today is over-polished. This record has a freshness that can only come from the pressures we were under."

Wilko said: "I was meant to die in October and now I've recorded this with Roger. I can't keep gushing, but I saw The Who in 1969 when I was at university. He's a star to me."

Wilko told the YA in September that he is working on more original music and could have enough for two more albums, but suspected they could end up being put together and released after his death.

He will perform with Roger Daltrey at the O2 Shepherd's Bush Empire on Tuesday, February 25.

Mark Wahlberg as Marcus Luttrell in Lone Survivor

Taliban hit gets seal of approval

Lone Survivor (15, 121 mins)

BASED on the true story of a failed Navy SEALs operation to kill a high-ranking member of the Taliban, Lone Survivor is a rousing tribute to the men who perished in June 2005 while serving their country.

Director Peter Berg is no stranger to explosive action and male posturing, having previously helmed The Kingdom, Hancock and the water-logged 2012 blockbuster Battleship.

He is the perfect fit for this gruelling material, delivering a final 30 minutes that will have audiences wincing in horror as four SEALs fling themselves down the Hindu Kush Mountains near the Afghanistan-Pakistan border during a gunfight with the Taliban.

Broken bones jut through shattered limbs and bullets scythe through flesh as the four-strong team continues to fight to the tragic end, aware that their struggles could be in vain.

It's a heroic and harrowing portrait of bravado in combat and the bonds of brotherhood behind enemy lines.

At Bagram Air Base, Marcus Luttrell (Mark Wahlberg), Michael Murphy (Taylor Kitsch), Danny Dietz (Emile Hirsch) and Matt Axelson (Ben Foster) await their assignment.

During downtime, they welcome Shane Patton (Alexander Ludwig) into the ranks via an initiation ceremony, which involves dancing in front of the other men and reciting a Navy SEALs mantra.

"No matter how dark it gets, or how far you fall, you are never out of the fight," he barks.

Soon after, Lieutenant Commander Erik Kristensen (Eric Bana) gives the order to hunt Ahmad Shah (Yousuf Azami), who is suspected of killing marines in Afghanistan. The reconnaissance is fatally compromised when three shepherds, two of whom are boys, stumble on the SEALs' hiding place.

The men argue about whether they should shoot the locals or let them go. "It's nobody's business what we do up here," argues Axelson.

Murphy takes the final decision to let the villagers go and within hours, the SEALs are surrounded by hundreds of gun-toting Taliban.

The title of Berg's film might give away the ending, but Lone Survivor still jangles the nerves as Luttrell and co refuse to surrender in the face of overwhelming odds.

Wahlberg, Kitsch, Hirsch and Foster rise to the physical challenge with gusto, propelling themselves around hazardous mountain terrain as the enemy swarms.

Berg directs the climactic sequence with aplomb, seemingly turning up the volume of sound effects to accentuate every crack of a cranium on jagged rocks.

While Lone Survivor hits hard in the action set pieces, and leaves us breathless and slightly queasy thanks to brilliant make-up, the film is under-powered when it comes to fleshing out the characters and their back stories.

Berg compensates with bookended footage and photographs of real SEALs, including the men who fell during this Operation Red Wings.

Released: January 31

Tandoori Parlour offers all you can eat a la carte menu

Advertisement feature

TANDOORI Parlour has a superb new offer for 2014 – 'eat as much as you like' from the a la carte menu, freshly cooked and served to your table.

This offer is available from Sunday to Thursday for just £12.95 per person.

The restaurant's five star cuisine can also be enjoyed in the comfort of your own home thanks to its new takeaway service.

The popular restaurant, which has been serving delicious food to the community since the mid 1970s, has gone one step further by offering even more to its customers.

With a specially heated vehicle it is now delivering its vast menu to homes throughout the local area, all with the guarantee of arriving piping hot.

The service, free for orders of over £10, can also deliver alcoholic drinks for you to enjoy alongside your mouth-watering, freshly prepared food.

The service is just one of the ways Tandoori Parlour, at 61-63 Hart Road, Thundersley, goes out of its way for customers. As well as offering free VIP cards with 'two for one' deals and money off buffet evenings, the restaurant also helps diners celebrate special occasions.

Its Sunday Lunchtime Buffet, offering a choice of 52 dishes as well as a platter of starters silver served to your table is a great way to enjoy a meal with the family as it costs just £7.95 per person and is free for children aged 10 and under.

Tandoori Parlour, which is the largest Indian restaurant in Essex with a capacity for 450 people and was one of the first Indian restaurants to win the Tiffin Cup in 2005, is regularly featured in the Good Curry Guide.

It boasts a downstairs dining area with bar and dance floor as well as a Crystal Room upstairs, complete with illuminated glass dance floor, laser light show, baby grand piano, and state-of-the-art sound and lighting.

Diners can enjoy a wide range of Indian and Nepalese cuisine at its extensive evening buffets, which cost just £11.95 per person from Sunday to Wednesday, and £12.95 on Thursday.

Its popular Banquet and Disco nights are held on Friday and Saturday offering silver served starters, extensive buffet as well as a disco with DJ entertainment. Both evenings cost £16.95 per person, or just £14 on Friday night for VIP card holders.

Tandoori Parlour, which has helped raise thousands of pounds over the years for a range of charities including Barnardo's, the British Red Cross and Essex Air Ambulance, can also host Charity Nights, where 50 per cent of the profits go to the charity of your choice.

Tandoori Parlour, which is fully air conditioned and licensed, has full disabled facilities and a free large car park opposite.

The restaurant is open from noon

Lemon Tree serves up delicious new menus

NEW and exciting menus are now being served at a fantastic Mediterranean restaurant in Southchurch village.

The Lemon Tree, at 513 Southchurch Road, which has been delighting diners for many years with its five star cuisine, is now offering even more thanks to new and extensive menus for diners to choose from.

Romantic diners can celebrate Valentine's Day in style with a sumptuous three course meal at £29.95 per person.

Its lunchtime and evening menus are served every day, excluding Friday and Saturday evening, and cost just £12.95 for two-courses and £15.95 for three courses - giving diners outstanding value-for-money.

Lemon Tree has also introduced a new party menu at £19.95 for three courses throughout the week - and £22.95 on Saturday - the restaurant likes to let people know it welcomes parties.

There is a special treat for pasta and pizza lovers.

Italian pasta and pizza expert chef Giovanni Quaglia from Napoli is in the kitchen with his Neapolitan way of doing pasta and pizza.

The pasta and pizza menu offers fantastic choice and value for families as well as young diners who want to enjoy a lunch with friends or an evening out.

Stone baked pizzas, priced from just £6.25 to £8.95, are cooked before your eyes in The Lemon Tree's open plan kitchen, while its pasta menu offers diners amazing choice as all of its dishes can be served as a starter or a main meal.

The restaurant's A la Carte menu includes an extensive range of starters from Scottish Smoked Salmon, Avocado and Crayfish Tails, and Turkish Stuffed Peppers, to Mediterranean King Prawns and Calamari Espana - lightly floured, deep fried calamari served with salad, garnish and homemade tartar sauce.

Its choice of main dishes is extensive with meat lovers in for a treat with the likes of Breast of Chicken and Mozzarella, Cypriot Kleftico - slow roasted shoulder of lamb flavoured with mountain herbs - Wild Venison Steak, and Chef Special Fillet steak. Those who have a taste for seafood are also spoilt for choice with a wide range of dishes from traditional Spanish Paella, Fillet of Salmon and Whole Lemon Sole, to Swordfish Steak and King Prawn Thermador - cooked in cream, mustard, brandy and baked with cheese.

There is entertainment every Thursday with live rat pack style music by Graham play-back.

Anyone who has not visited The Lemon Tree recently will find a new look restaurant complete with a beautiful dining area with lantern roof, an open plan kitchen where diners can see their food being prepared, and a limestone patio area for alfresco dining.

With seating for up to 80 people and an extensive wine and champagne list, The Lemon Tree is the ideal setting for large parties, as well as smaller celebrations as private areas can now be provided.

For further information, or to make a reservation, call the restaurant on 01702 467793, visit its website at www.lemon-treesouthend.co.uk or join them on Facebook.

LOCAL ESTATE AGENT GOES THAT EXTRA MILE!

Mike Hopkins, Partner of Brown & Brand Estate Agents has for the first time entered the Virgin Money London Marathon 2014.

His place was obtained via Havens Hospices, who took care of his late Mother-In-Law and Mike has pledged to raise at least £1,500 for this worthy charity. Mike commented "I am determined to do my best on the day, knowing that I have raised funds for Havens Hospice. They were so supportive to my family whilst they cared for my Mother-in Law, and nothing was ever to much trouble for them. It's the least I can do to show my support for Havens Hospices and hope as many people will support and sponsor me. It will make all the hours of training, blisters and effort worthwhile."

If you would like to support Mike and Havens Hospices why not log onto www.justgiving.com/Mike-Hopkins3 and make a donation.

Drivetime

by Ian Johnson

HYUNDAI has worked wonders with its latest Santa Fe SUV, endowing it with a thoroughly European look with a dash of style that can upstage some more expensive competitors.

The old Santa Fe, was a bit overblown in looks and, although it was an immensely capable vehicle, it sadly lacked that certain something. When buying a vehicle like this you really do have to look at how you want to use it. Many opt for the practicality and high driving position SUVs offer and, like other manufacturers, Hyundai has extended the range with a two-wheel-drive option.

Some critics have rubbished the idea of two-wheel-drive versions of 4x4s, but in my books they are wrong. If you like the style, the seating options, the higher driving position and the feeling of security these vehicles offer, then why not?

Many people buy them for normal use and I am sure a lot of 4x4 options which cost a big chunk of cash never even get their tyres muddy or their complex terrain options challenged.

The one I drove was the Style version, a five-seat two-wheel-drive equipped with a punchy 2.2 CRDi diesel engine and a neat six-speed manual gearbox.

This is exceptionally well priced at £25,850 and, when you consider that it is backed by a five-year warranty with unlimited mileage, the whole idea becomes far more attractive.

And you also have to consider specification. This model came with a laden raft of goodies including 18-inch alloys, rear spoiler with high-mounted brake light, electric driver's seat lumbar support, three-stage heated front seats, air conditioning, privacy

THE EURO DIET: The new Hyundai Santa Fe Style 2.2CRDi has been give an more European look which makes it less bulky glass, six speakers and cruise control to name but a few. The only extra on the car was metallic paint at £545.

On the road, the Santa Fe was a smooth and capable mover featuring nimble cornering with minimal body roll. It was one of those vehicles that ticks the boxes without making a lot of fuss. It is a big car but very well-proportioned with sweeping lines and a very European looking grille.

All-round visibility is good even with passengers in the back and the overall feel is of a competent five seater with ability. In essence it is a crossover SUV offering the versatility of a family hatchback with the practicality of a conventional SUV.

Despite its size it is quite sporty – one of those rare cars that has a true zest for life.

ROVING ALL OVER: Exports are boosting UK car production

Britannia rules the exports

by Mike Torpey

CAR production in Britain is at most prolific for six years, setting the UK on course to be the third largest car-maker in Europe.

The number of vehicles built last year topped 1.5 million – a rise of 3.1 per cent and the highest volume since 2007, according to the Society of Motor Manufacturers and Traders (SMMT). And industry analysts predict output to hit record levels of around two million in the next three years.

Business Secretary Vince Cable said: "Today's figures are another sign that the British car industry is going from strength to strength – with one vehicle rolling off a production line somewhere in the UK every 20 seconds. Our success lies in the appetite from countries around the world for British cars. Around 80 per cent of the 1.5 million cars we produced last year were exported – a testament to the diverse, high quality of British manufacturing.

"It also highlights the benefits of industry and the Government working together and we want to continue this partnership through a long-term strategy. This will give businesses the confidence to invest, speed up development on vehicles of the future and keep the UK as a world leader in cars.

"Our investment of £1 billion jointly with industry will help do this, while also delivering jobs and driving growth."

Since 2009, there has been a marked change in export destinations for British-built cars as the European market has struggled with tough economic conditions.

For instance China's Brit imports have grown rapidly over recent years, and the country now looks set to become the largest non-EU market for UK-built cars.

Take-up in the USA also remained strong last year, and while Russia has seen volumes fall since 2012, it is now firmly established as a key export destination.

SMMT chief Mike Hawes said: "UK automotive investment exceeded £2.5 billion in 2013, reinforcing industry analysts' suggestions that the UK could break all-time car output records within the next four years."

Scrap Cars

End of the road for your vehicle?

Responsible drivers scrap their vehicles at an Authorised Treatment Facility (ATF).

Because only an ATF can legally scrap a vehicle. That means any pollutants will be made safe before it's recycled in an environmentally friendly way.

What's more, for certain types of vehicle you'll get a DVLA approved Certificate of Destruction (CoD). A CoD proves that the ATF has told DVLA your vehicle has been scrapped and so is no longer your responsibility. www.direct.gov.uk/motoring

CONDITIONS OF ACCEPTANCE FOR ALL ADVERTISEMENTS

Orders are accepted by the Publishers subject to the Standard Conditions agreed between the Newspaper Society and the Institute of Practitioners in Advertising. Save that:

1. Advertisements are accepted on the conditions that (a) descriptions relating to goods are accurate and in no way contravene the provisions of the Trade Descriptions Act 1968, and the Fair Trading Act 1973, and (b) the copy complies with the British Code of Advertising Practice. Advertisements offering credit or hire facilities must conform to the Consumer Credit (Advertisements) Regulations 1980.

2. Classified Advertisers offering goods or service of a business, commercial or trade nature will, at the discretion of the Publishers, be deemed 'Trade Advertisers', and as such, must include their names in advertisements. A telephone number is an optional addition to these requirements and not an alternative.

3. To comply with the Business Advertisements (Disclosure) Order 1977, Trade Advertisers must make it clear that they are selling goods in the course of business either by content, format, size or place of the advertisement or by including words such as 'trade', 'dealer', 'agent', 'wholesaler', 'IT' etc. in the advertisement.

4. The Publishers accept no liability whatsoever for any loss or damage however caused arising out of:

(a) Any error, inaccuracy or omission in the printing or publishing of any advertisement;
(b) Any failure to publish an advertisement on the day / date or day / dates specified by the advertiser; or

(c) Any delay in forwarding or omission to forward replies to box numbers to the Advertiser. The Publishers will endeavour to publish advertisements on the day / date or day / dates specified by the Advertiser but insertion days / dates cannot be guaranteed.

5. Where shrinkage of advertisement occurs for whatever reasons the advertisement will be charged to the nearest full centimetre. This will NOT apply to the full-page advertisements, which remain full pages even after shrinkage.

6. The Publishers reserve the right to reject an advertisement or to vary it in any way they deem fit, at any time before publication, whether or not the advertisement has already been accepted for publication.

7. Whilst every effort is made to minimise errors in advertisements, mistakes do sometimes occur. Advertisers or their agents should therefore check their advertisements and inform us of any errors immediately. Responsibility cannot be accepted for more than one incorrect insertion. Typographical or minor changes, which do not affect the value of the advertisement, do not qualify for republication or allowances.

8. All gross advertising rates (except classified line and semi-display) are subject to and include a 0.1% Advertising Standards Board of Finance surcharge, payable by the advertisers to help finance the self-regulatory control system administered by the Advertising Standards Authority.

9. All rates quoted are subject to VAT at the rate currently in force at the time the advertisement appears.

10. Should the rate for advertisements be altered the price for remaining insertions shall be revised accordingly or the publishers shall have the right to cancel the uninserted portion of the order.

11. The placing of an advertisement order will be deemed an acceptance of these conditions.

12. Account facilities are granted at the discretion of the Company.

13. All accounts must be settled within the terms agreed by the Company and the Customer.

(1) Should an advertiser be in breach of the agreed terms, the publisher shall be entitled to levy a 10% surcharge on the value of the whole debt in respect of accounts with terms of less than 30 days, and any discounts or commissions that had been allowed will be reclaimed.

(2) Regular monthly accounts that are in breach of the agreed terms will pay an interest rate of 8% above the current bank of England base rate for each month that the account is overdue and discounts or commissions that had been allowed will be reclaimed. Should Legal action be required the interest will be charged in accordance with the County Court Act 1984.

14. Where an advertiser instructs / appoints an advertising agent to act on their behalf, the advertiser will remain jointly and severally liable for payment in respect of an advertisement(s) should the appointed agent fail to pay. For the avoidance of doubt, the agent acts for the advertiser and not for the publisher with the agent being responsible for notifying the advertiser of this liability.

15. All queries must be notified, preferably in writing to the accounts department of the publisher within 7 days of the invoice date.

16. All digital services are maintained in partnership with the publishers' hosting service providers. Every effort is made to ensure the continuity of these services, but some occasional technical downtime beyond the publishers control may occur. The publisher and its associated companies shall be under no liability if the production and distribution of web services is delayed or prevented by any cause beyond the control of the publisher.

17. The Publisher may provide voucher copies for published advertisements in electronic form only subject to certain criteria. Further information is available on request.

18. The copyright of advertisements produced wholly or partially by the Publishers belong to the Publishers. Advertisers may not reproduce such advertisements without the Publishers' consent.

Box Numbers

Boxes are open for the receipt of bona fide answers and are not available for distribution of trade canvassing matter. Original testimonials, goods, cash, cash stamps or payments of any kind must not be enclosed. A box Number and postal address are charged as part of the advertisement, i.e. Box No., centre address. There is no charge for forwarding replies. Box numbers alone are not available for use in 'Trade' advertisements, other than Employment and Business Opportunities.

Holiday & Travel Category

All advertising must contain the name of the advertiser, phone number alone are not permitted.

Data Protection

The service you have requested may require us to carry out a credit search at a credit-referencing agency, which will record the fact that a search has been made. We may need to share your information with other lenders and credit reference agencies. However, we will only use the information from these searches to make credit-granting decisions and, if necessary, for fraud prevention or tracing debtors.

Data controller will use your information for administration and analysis. We may share your information with other Trade Group Newspaper companies or carefully selected third parties. We, or they, may send you details of other goods and services, which may be of interest to you. The information may be provided by letter, telephone or other reasonable means of communication. Calls may be recorded or monitored for training purposes.

Special conditions apply with regard to the advertising of adult services, which are outlined to all persons submitting such advertisements.

Volunteering Opportunities with Southend Girls Project

Youth at Risk, in partnership with Southend Borough Council, will be running an innovative and transformational personal development programme for young women aged 14-16 in Southend.

The Southend Girls Project aims to transform the mind sets, attitudes and experiences that block young women's path to thriving, successful futures.

You can have an important role in this transformation as a volunteer with us, and will participate in a training package designed and delivered by some of the best trainers in the field of personal and professional development.

Contact Sue Handley on

NO SHAME AS UTD CUP RUN FALTERS

Abdoulaye Faye of Hull City heads close in the first half-against Southend Utd

Southend United

The FA Cup Fourth Round with Budweiser

Southend United 0 Hull City 2
Rowland Lyons & Brian Jeeves reporting from Roots Hall Stadium
TWO second half goals from Matty Fryatt saw Barclays Premier League Hull City progress to the fifth round and end brave Southend United's run in this season's FA Cup.

Shrimpers manager Phil Brown described in his programme notes how he, along with his wife Karen and daughter Sophie, had danced around the kitchen on hearing the draw that pitted his former charges against his current employers. Indeed, the game captured the imagination of the locals with a season's best crowd of 10,250 packed inside Roots Hall.

Hull had the first opening when David Meyler found space outside the box but fired horribly high over the top. Nevertheless, it was to be a difficult opening period for the Tigers as Southend enjoyed the better chances.

Kevan Hurst centred for Will Atkinson as the Blues probed, but the Hull backline averted the danger, while Paul McShane had to react to his own mistake, clearing up as Anthony Straker lurked.

Southend continued to ask the lion's share of the questions. Mark Phillips headed Hurst's cross at Steve Harper. Then Southend went even closer as former Newcastle United keeper Harper was forced to tip over Barry Corr's stooping header from Ryan Leonard's bomb of a throw.

It seemed like only a matter of time before the home side would make the breakthrough. Ben Coker whipped in from the left, but Corr and Michael Timlin were unable to make contact, then Harper had to dash out to smother as Straker closed in.

Despite the Blues' dominance, there was no questioning Hull's Premiership quality. In fact they almost opened the scoring when George Boyd picked out Danny Graham only for Shrimper keeper Daniel Bentley thwart the former Sunderland man with a terrific one-on-one stop.

As the half drew to a close there was a sense that Hull were coming to terms with the home side's infectious endeavour. McShane headed Boyd's dead ball straight at Bentley while Luke Prosser made a timely interception as Matty Fryatt bore down on goal.

When the teams re-emerged, Southend continued to trouble their illustrious guests.

Maynor Figueroa cleared Straker's centre behind, and then came a moment that rocked Roots Hall to its very foundations.

The ball broke to Michael Timlin who drove forward before unleashing a venomous strike from more than 30 yards. Harper was rooted to the spot, but the busy midfielder's effort cannoned off the underside of the bar, Corr headed the rebounded straight into the grateful Hull keeper's gloves as the Premier Leaguers took a collective sigh of relief.

As the game wore on, the visitors' class started to show. Graham's low strike was smothered by Bentley, then the highly rated Southend keeper made an astonishing stop by adjusting his feet to knock away Meyler's deflected effort.

But just after the hour Southend were finally breached. Meyler played in Fryatt, who showed great composure before scoring, much to the delight of the visiting support.

Southend refused to lie down. Leonard's shot was charged down while Hurst saw another attempt repelled as the home side threw caution to what was now an extremely strong wind.

With the wet and blustery weather conditions worsening, Southend piled forward in an attempt to earn a replay. Harper clawed away Hurst's in-swinging free-kick, then Corr wasn't far away from reaching another centre, this time from Coker.

But as the game moved into stoppage time Hull finally put the tie out of reach. Fryatt cut in from the right before beating Prosser and firing across Bentley to grab his second of the afternoon and double the Tigers lead.

The goal was harsh on Southend who had given a wonderful account of themselves.

Southend United: Bentley, Thompson, Phillips, Prosser, Coker, Hurst, Leonard, Timlin (Woodrow 70), Straker (Payne 80), Atkinson, Corr (Eastwood 88) Subs not used: Smith, Laird, Clifford, Gomis

Hull City: Harper, Rosenior, Faye, McShane, Figueroa, Boyd, Meyler, Quinn (Bruce 88), Sagbo (Llivermore 82), Graham (Brady 73), Fryatt Subs not used: McGregor, Davies, Koren, Elmohamady

What the managers said...

Phil Brown: "I am proud of the players. The final third was the difference between the two teams and [where] Hull showed a lot of class."

"Steve Harper saved from Barry Corr, and then we hit the bar and within minutes Hull go and score. It didn't fall for us today."

"Any defeat is a bitter pill to swallow, but you can draw a lot from the game, but our challenge now is to get out of the division".

Steve Bruce: "Southend were terrific and they gave us a hell of a cup-tie, and their lad will probably never hit a better shot that hit our crossbar and it could have been one of those great cup stories".

Hull boss Steve Bruce

Football

A flurry of goals for local fans

Non-league round up by Brian Jeeves

Despite the inclement weather once again affecting local football, there was a flurry of goal in the games that survived.

Leading the way was Canvey Island who shared six goals with Enfield Town in their Ryman Premier Division clash at Donkey Lane.

A Liam Hope penalty gave Town an early lead, but it was the second half when the game burst into life. Jason Hallett scored either side of a Jay Curran strike to give the Gulls a 3-1 lead with just six minutes to go. However, Hope added his second then deep into stoppage time Joe Stephens rescued a point for the home side.

There was a big derby at Rookery Hill where a healthy crowd of 306 turned out despite the wet and blustery conditions to see East Thurrock United entertain AFC Hornchurch. Two first half goals from Stefan Payne put the Urchins in control before Jack Hopkins pulled one back for the Rocks after the break.

In the Ryman North, Paul Clayton and Ryan Imbert found the net as Romford eased their relegation fears by winning 2-0 at Chatham Town, while Witham Town went down 2-0 at Harlow Town. Leon Antoine and Junior Dadson scoring for the Millers.

Two Essex Senior League games started, but only one finished. Tittle challengers Great Wakering Rovers and Enfield 1893 shared the spoils in an entertaining affair at Burroughs Park. John Bricknell fired Enfield ahead with an early penalty, but goals from Aaron Baldwin and Nick Skelton turned the game on its head in favour of the Rovers. Bricknell added his second to earn the visitors a point, the result leaves both clubs behind leaders Tower Hamlets who won 3-0 at Ilford on Thursday night.

The other ESL game saw Barking grab a 69th minute lead against FC Romania at Mayesbrook Park, James Barlow the Blues scorer. But with ten minutes remaining the referee had no option other than to abandon the match amid a thunderstorm.

A number of games survived in the Essex Olympian League. Biggest winners of the day were Second Division Basildon Town who triumphed 6-0 at Ryan FC. Marcus Bowers (3), Tommy Barton, Reece Conway and Mark Sanders found the net for Town.

Cricket

Topley injured

ESSEX'S Reece Topley is currently recovering from a lower back injury the left arm bowler picked up whilst on the England Performance Programme in Australia in December.

The injury kept him out of possible selection for the upcoming England Lions tour of Sri Lanka, with the 19 year-old now staying in the UK to focus on his recovery ahead of the pre season schedule.

Essex Cricket's Lead Physiotherapist Chris Clarke-Irons said: "Reece is currently undergoing rehabilitation following a lower back injury; we hope he will be fully fit for the start of the 2014 season."

High-Tech keeping homes safe from the elements

(Advertisement Feature)

Over 70% of homes in the UK have a flat roof incorporating a mineral felt finish - that's seven out of ten home owners with a potential flat roof problem...

Mineral felt is prone to a slow breakdown often allowing water ingress to cause unnecessary problems before being visibly detected within the home. Mineral felt has a tendency to blister throughout summer months and eventually becoming brittle and cracking during colder periods, cracking will also appear around exposed edge's and other points of detail i.e. around pipes, skylights, flashings into brickwork or under tiles etc. These areas are where workmanship is most crucial. Felt also attracts moss & algae further degrading the roof surface.

It is very important that every homeowner is made aware that insurance companies no longer cover or accept any liability for any external or internal damage caused by a leaking felt roof. Unless it can be proven storm damage any such claim is categorised as wear & tear or poor workmanship leaving the homeowner with the financial burden.

In 1999 High-Tech Roofing first introduced the most advanced flat roof technology to the homeowner. Protan who are based in Norway have a pedigree in the design and manufacture of waterproofing materials dating back to 1939 producing the first roofing membrane in 1971. Protan is our preferred PVC single-ply flat roofing system. Protan will cope with all climates as millions of square metres are installed here and abroad with a proven track record stretching over four decades. Protan is predominantly an architect specified roofing system winning many awards and serving the very competitive commercial sector.

High-Tech have installed and proudly guarantees over 7000 domestic projects along with an untarnished reputation.

A High-Tech roof is dimensionally stable and solar reflective, it is unaffected by climate change and 100% resistant to moss & algae. As it is vapour permeable it can never blister or become brittle and crack. We will create an anti-slip 100% storm resistant watertight roof, maintenance free and guaranteed never to leak.
